Earn ACO Points and Be Ranked Nationally!

The ACO is having a “shortened” 2013 season that will run from March – June with the King of Cornhole event being held in July in Cincinnati, OH! This is the final points earning tournament of the year. Players earn points in singles AND doubles at each event and then get ranked nationally.

Players must be members of the ACO in order to participate.
Membership is $20/person and is good from now until July 2014!

Cornhole Tournament Information:

Time

- Doors open at 10am with registration closing for the first tournament at 11am. The first tournament will be doubles (players must bring a partner) which will immediately be followed by singles. Each tournament the team/player will take an SCR first (an SCR is where the team/player throws 13 frames – 4 bags per frame – and totals their score). This will seed each tournament individually.

Format

- Each tournament will be best 2/3 in the winners bracket, single games in the losers bracket
- The Championship match the team/player coming out of the losers bracket must win 3 games in a row in order to win the tournament (per ACO rules)

Entry Fee

- Doubles - $40/team to compete for points AND cash or just $10/team if playing for points only
- Singles - $30/player to compete for points AND cash or just $10/player if playing for points only

Prizes

- Each tournament will pay out 70% of the entries taken in

Venue – This is an indoor event using ACO boards and 2-sided bags. Players are NOT allowed to bring their own bags for this event.
